

Join BIJ at their Selichot Program

The Wave

Saturday, September 12th from 7:00–10:30 PM in the Fireside Room

Join us for a free screening and discussion of the German film, “The Wave” followed by a brief Selichot service.

Made in 1981, Wave is based on a real life classroom experiment conducted at Palo Alto High in 1967.

The controversial film demonstrates how under certain conditions, average people can develop attitudes & behaviors of superiority that lead to disastrous consequences. It was translated into sixteen languages and adopted into the German high school curriculum.

After the film, Rabbi Rosalind Glazer will lead a discussion on human potential for evil and for good, emphasizing the seasonal practice of teshuvah, the call for individual and communal self-reflection, correction and transformation.

Rabbi Glazer, Cantorial Soloist David Morgenstern and Inara Morgenstern will lead the Selichot Service that follows.

We look forward to your participation in this stimulating and thoughtful program.

Drinks are provided; please bring dessert to share.
