

Marriage

Not just for straight Maccabees anymore

Sunday, December 5 • 3:30 p.m.

Ninth Circuit Courthouse steps (7th & Mission, SF)

Families light the path to justice and speak out for marriage equality.

Join parents, children, college students, young adults, and faith community members as we light candles in the name of justice outside the Ninth Circuit Courthouse the afternoon before the Proposition 8 case is heard. This event will be the last opportunity to show our support as a community for marriage equality before the case reaches the United States Supreme Court.

As we celebrate the miracle of light by kindling the Chanukah candles we pray that the Court's path will be illuminated with tzedek (justice/righteousness) and the belief that we are all made b'tzelem Elohim (in the image of G-d). People from all faiths or no faith are welcomed to participate.

Bring your family, menorah and candles.
Music, dreidels, hot chocolate, and community will be provided!

RSVP to Laurene Bounaud at lbounaud@jcrc.org or 415-977-7444
(so we know how much hot chocolate is necessary!)

Co-sponsored by Bay Area Coalition of Welcoming Congregations, Congregation Beth Israel Judea, Congregation Beyt Tikkun, Congregation Sha'ar Zahav, Congregation Sherith Israel, JCC of the East Bay, Jewish Family and Children's Services of the East Bay, Kehilla Community Synagogue, LGBT Alliance of the Jewish Community Federation, Marriage Equality USA, San Francisco Hillel, Temple Emanu-El, Temple Sinai, Tikkun Magazine.

Presented by the JCRC, a benefiairy agency of the Jewish Community Federation